Legislative Update 2025.12

by Andres Malave. Property tax reform is on the move: all eight House amendments advanced, with four headed to State Affairs on December 2. Our priority bill, SB 118 (RV park assessments), passed its first stop unanimously. Plus: the House launches "AI Week," a new Select Committee on Congressional Redistricting meets December 4, and key special elections land December 9 and March 24. With 2026 statewide races ahead, your PAC support matters more than ever.. read more...

In Case You Missed It...

Legislative Update 2025.11

by Andres Malave. November's committee weeks are zeroing in on property tax reform, with eight House proposals—each protecting law enforcement funding and preserving school taxes—targeted for the 2026 ballot. We're also tracking HB 39/SB 118 on RV park assessments, special elections on December 9 (and additional contests in January/March), and key committee dates ahead of the 2026 Session starting January 13. Stay tuned for fast updates that impact Florida's RV industry... read more...

FRVTA R2 Donates to Hibiscus Children's Center

Region 2 proudly presents a $2,500 donation to the Hibiscus Children's Center through the MC Santa's Elves Activity Fund. This incredible organization provides a safe haven for children who have experienced abuse, abandonment, or neglect—offering over 450,000 nights of safety and care since opening its doors. Region 2's donation helps bring smiles and create lasting memories for children through fun outings and special experiences all year long... read more...

New FL Bill Causes Big Changes for RV Drivers

by Ejola Cook. Having an RV is like having your home always with you, and sometimes those lines of home and driving become blurred. I have seen RV drivers riding with open containers believing that they won't get caught because they are in essence in their "home." However, on October 1st, 2025, Florida House Bill 687, also known as "Trenton's Law," went into effect... read more...

Passing the Torch at the FRVTA: Dave Kelly to Retire

Ken Loyd steps in as FRVTA's Executive Director on October 13, with Dave Kelly staying through the end of show season to ensure a smooth handoff.

Why LP Gas Licensing Matters in the RV Industry

by Traeanne Reynolds. Whether you're selling, servicing, inspecting, or hosting RVs at your facility, ensuring proper LP gas safety is not optional—it's critical. In Florida and many other states, working on an RV's LP gas system requires a state-issued license. Understanding why this matters helps protect your business, your customers, and your reputation... ### Does the Florida Lemon Law Apply to RVs?

by Ejola Cook. Lately I have heard more consumers and lawyers threatening lemon law actions, but do they apply to RV's? The answer is that it depends. So, lets break it down... read more...

RV Pro Honors FRVTA's Patty Flanagan

For over 22 years, Patty has been the driving force behind FRVTA's regional RV shows. Known for her organization, dedication, and mentorship, she now leads the Florida RV SuperShow while training the next generation. Her commitment to the industry and passion for helping others make her an invaluable part of the FRVTA team... read more...

Slomads on the Rise: Longer-Stay RVers Reshape the Industry

by Traeanne Reynolds. Extended RV stays are becoming the new normal. Discover how campgrounds, dealerships, and suppliers can adapt to meet the needs of "slomads" and unlock fresh business opportunities... read more...

Legislative Update

by Andres Malave. The 2025 Session may be officially in the books, but preparations are already underway for the 2026 Session. Committee meetings begin the week of October 6 and will continue through December 8. The Session itself is scheduled to start in January and run through early March, giving lawmakers time to return home and hit the campaign trail... read more...

Be Prepared: IRS Tips for Disaster Readiness

With peak disaster season approaching, now is the perfect time to review emergency preparedness steps to protect your clients and your practice. The IRS offers valuable guidance on safeguarding critical tax and financial documents before a disaster strikes.

Key tips include storing copies of important records in a secure location, maintaining an inventory of high-value items, and becoming familiar with IRS disaster assistance resources. Taking these simple steps now can make a big difference in the event of an emergency... learn more...

Understanding the Telephone Communications Protections Act

by Ejola Cook. Do you ever get frustrated with text messages selling you products that you never asked for? Well, the government implemented laws to protect consumers from these types of texting campaigns... read more...

Golf Carts and Liability: a $50 Million Wake Up Call

by Ejola Cook. While I typically focus on the laws and cases affecting RV's and our dealers, I feel I need to veer a little off the path and discuss Golf Carts. I know many of your customers use them, drive them, and you might even use them yourselves... read more...

IRS Tips for Protecting Financial Records in Emergencies

The IRS recently released Tax Tip 2025-31, a valuable resource for individuals and business owners outlining steps to safeguard financial records in the event of a disaster or emergency. From creating electronic backups to reviewing insurance coverage, these tips are essential for staying organized and prepared—especially as we approach hurricane season and the next tax filing period.

We encourage all FRVTA members to review and share this information with your teams, clients, and customers. Being proactive today can make a big difference when it matters most.

Good Will Protection

by Ejola Cook. All too frequently I get calls from upset dealers, who, in the name of customer goodwill, provide free services or refunds for products, then despite this help, those same customers go to leave scathing reviews, or return demanding more service and products for free... read more...

Are You Fully Protected Against an Unfair & Deceptive Practices Claim?

by Ejola Cook. A favorite cause of action for consumer attorneys is to claim violations of Florida's Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act. Part of the reason the attorneys love this statute is that a Dealer does not even have to break a law to be held liable. It also allows the plaintiff's attorney a right to legal fees... read more...

Creating Lifelong Customers

by Traeanne Reynolds. In the competitive RV dealership industry, cultivating lifelong customers is essential for sustained success. Implementing a customer-centric sales process not only enhances loyalty but also significantly reduces costs associated with acquiring new customers... read more...

RVers Guide Available for Distribution or Online

The RVers Guide is the annual membership directory which is used to promote your company. They are available for you to distribute at your business locations to your customers. If interested, contact the FRVTA office and they will be shipped to your business (60 per box). The complete guide is also available on our website.
