Why LP Gas Licensing Matters in the RV Industry

by Traeanne Reynolds. Whether you're selling, servicing, inspecting, or hosting RVs at your facility, ensuring proper LP gas safety is not optional—it's critical. In Florida and many other states, working on an RV's LP gas system requires a state-issued license. Understanding why this matters helps protect your business, your customers, and your reputation... Legislative Update by Andres Malave. The 2025 Session may be officially in the books, but preparations are already underway for the 2026 Session. Committee meetings begin the week of October 6 and will continue through December 8. The Session itself is scheduled to start in January and run through early March, giving lawmakers time to return home and hit the campaign trail... read more...

Be Prepared: IRS Tips for Disaster Readiness

With peak disaster season approaching, now is the perfect time to review emergency preparedness steps to protect your clients and your practice. The IRS offers valuable guidance on safeguarding critical tax and financial documents before a disaster strikes.

Key tips include storing copies of important records in a secure location, maintaining an inventory of high-value items, and becoming familiar with IRS disaster assistance resources. Taking these simple steps now can make a big difference in the event of an emergency... learn more...

Legislative Update

by Andres Malave. Governor DeSantis closed out the month of June by signing the nearly $115 billion budget and tax cut package. As expected, he took an axe to about $500 million in local spending projects. Many of those were highlighted in Florida Tax Watch's Budget Turkey Watch Report... read more...

Region 2 Donation to Hibiscus Children's Center

FRVTA Region 2 was proud to support the Hibiscus Children's Center with a $2,500 donation this past June. For over 25 years, Region 2 has partnered with this incredible organization, which provides safe shelter and compassionate care to abused, neglected, and abandoned children.

The original Hibiscus House in Jensen Beach has grown to include additional facilities in Vero Beach and Port St. Lucie, serving children throughout the region for more than 30 years. One of its strongest advocates is Dave Miller, who entered the program at age 5. Today, he's a successful businessman with a family of his own and often shares how Hibiscus House gave him a sense of safety, dignity, and hope.

Golf Carts and Liability: a $50 Million Wake Up Call by Ejola Cook. While I typically focus on the laws and cases affecting RV's and our dealers, I feel I need to veer a little off the path and discuss Golf Carts. I know many of your customers use them, drive them, and you might even use them yourselves... read more...

IRS Tips for Protecting Financial Records in Emergencies

The IRS recently released Tax Tip 2025-31, a valuable resource for individuals and business owners outlining steps to safeguard financial records in the event of a disaster or emergency. From creating electronic backups to reviewing insurance coverage, these tips are essential for staying organized and prepared—especially as we approach hurricane season and the next tax filing period.

We encourage all FRVTA members to review and share this information with your teams, clients, and customers. Being proactive today can make a big difference when it matters most.

Good Will Protection

by Ejola Cook. All too frequently I get calls from upset dealers, who, in the name of customer goodwill, provide free services or refunds for products, then despite this help, those same customers go to leave scathing reviews, or return demanding more service and products for free... Are You Fully Protected Against an Unfair & Deceptive Practices Claim?

by Ejola Cook. A favorite cause of action for consumer attorneys is to claim violations of Florida's Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act. Part of the reason the attorneys love this statute is that a Dealer does not even have to break a law to be held liable. It also allows the plaintiff's attorney a right to legal fees... Innovating Florida's RV Industry: Attracting Younger Travelers and Out-of-State Tourists by Traeanne Reynolds. Florida's RV industry has long been a cornerstone of the state's travel and tourism sector, offering visitors an unparalleled way to experience the Sunshine State's beaches, parks, and attractions. However, with an increasingly diverse array of travel options available, the industry faces a critical challenge: how to remain competitive by appealing to younger travelers and Snowbirds or out-of-state tourists...
